ANNUAL REPORT
HALO

Kids in the greatest need, need love.

For homeless kids living without a family of their own, HALO provides the foundation of a family. It's a long-term, one-on-one, unconditional commitment to our kids that is rooted in love and fueled by volunteers.

Everyone can think of that one moment in their life that changed everything. It's the moment that made you who you are today.

For thousands of kids around the world, HALO is that moment. At HALO, we give our kids a home in which hope can emerge from hardship. And where drawings about their past unlock dreams about their future.

We work wherever kids who have been abused, abandoned, and orphaned, need to feel loved. We work to help one more child spend one less day alone.

"HALO provides a safe place. It's genuine. They'll show you the love you deserve."

— HALO Youth
Age 18

From Our Founder

Dear HALO Family,

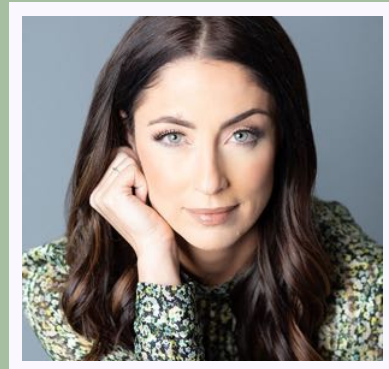

This year, our Mantra is “Limitations are opportunities to serve in a different way.”

Because of you, we were able to persevere through this pandemic. Because of you, during this uncertain time, we have been able to serve our youth while keeping everyone safe. Because of you, we can focus on our mission of serving children in the greatest need and continue programming throughout the pandemic.

Your support allowed HALO to creatively respond and adapt to meet the greatest needs of our youth. You have provided countless meals, clothing, life skill programs, hygiene supplies, and care to our kids as they navigate their new normal.

Although this year has been difficult for everyone, you have made it a little brighter for our kids. You mean the world to us, thank you for your continued support.

Rebecca Welsh

Our Work

6,000
Homeless
Youth

In Kansas City, Mo., Point In Time* estimates that there are nearly 6,000 homeless 13-24 year olds in need in Kansas City. This DOES NOT include teens who are living on couches and compromising circumstances, as we so oftentimes hear from youth in need of HALO housing.

Point In Time provides the official homelessness count and numbers from local school districts.

Babies born in Missouri with an opioid addiction has increased by 538% over the last 10 years. This cripples the hospitals, foster system, and affects older children who are in the system. There just aren't enough places for these kids to go.

538%

$330,000

The average cost of a youth aging out of the system in incarceration and welfare. The longterm solution is breaking the cycle.

“Treat a man as he is, and he will remain as he is. Treat a man as he could be, and he will become what he should be.”

- Ralph Waldo Emerson

Our Work

HOUSING

Shelter from the storm, in more ways than one. Providing the foundation of a family means we not only give homeless kids a safe place to sleep, we teach them how to make their bed every morning.

That's just one of hundreds of little how-tos most kids learn from their parents or grandparents. HALO kids learn them here in order to take on a wide spectrum of needs, from simply surviving the night, to surviving their first job interview, to thriving on their own as successful young adults.

HEALING

Homelessness hurts. Art heals. A picture is worth a thousand words, and our kids have plenty of stories to tell. But often, they don't want to talk about their life before HALO. Therapeutic art provides kids with a safe place to purge painful memories and share their stories, so they can start the healing process without having to say a word.

Living on the fringes can leave lasting scars, inside and out. So beyond the breakthroughs brought about through works of art, HALO supports healing holistically, through counseling sessions, medical check-ups, life skill courses, and a program called iEmpathize, which teaches kids how to recognize and avoid negative relationships, sex trafficking, and predators.

A little love goes a long way in helping kids come back from the edges of their community, so they can someday play a role in shaping it.

EDUCATION

After years on the street, kids are hungry for much more than food. HALO puts homeless kids on a path to a positive future. Through tutoring, professional development, scholarships and help preparing for higher education, our kids work hard to leave the "at-risk" label behind and finally be seen as just a great kid with the potential to do great things.

Learning Center

Through therapeutic art programs, tutoring, professional development, scholarships and help preparing for higher education, our kids work hard to leave the “at-risk” label behind and finally be seen as a great kid with the potential to do great things. Programs are offered year round, multiple times a week, with a future focused curriculum to equip our youth with life skills to promote healing and help them to learn independently in a safe environment.

HALO delivers free programming and services to awarded program recipients on an annual basis to help provide the full circle of care for youth in the greatest need.

Our current Program Recipients include:

Transitional Living Program

The HALO Transitional Living Program (TLP) is an 18 month-long program that provides free housing for pregnant, parenting, and non-parenting youth ages 16-21 years old who are in homeless or high-risk situations. The goal of the HALO TLP is to help youth exit “crisis mode,” set long-term goals for themselves, and learn to live independently.

This program provides children of parenting teens a safe and stable living environment and assistance in securing daycare. Youth who are accepted into the program are required to be enrolled in school and seek and obtain part-time employment while they are in school. Youth who have graduated from high school must either obtain full-time employment or start college classes.

Youth are required to participate in life-skills workshops, which are aimed at teaching them how to live independently. Parenting youth are required to take weekly parenting classes. HALO staff work with youth on 5 main focus areas: Daily Living, Self Care, Relationships and Communication, Housing and Money Management, and Career and Education. Each youth meets weekly with HALO Staff to work on their goals and assess their progress throughout the program.

Celebrations

HALO launched the HALO Jefferson City Boys Program. This is a safe place of healing and hope that puts at-risk and homeless teen boys on a path to a positive future. Through homework help, connecting with male role models, life skill development, healthy relationship building, and recreational activities, these boys have the potential to do great things in their communities. This program connects the youth to resources year-round, provides a home-cooked meal every evening. To date, this program has served over 20 youth in need.

HALO created an Alumni Board with past HALO graduates. This group meets quarterly and brings ideas to the table on how to improve HALO programs and to speak to our current youth.

In response to the pandemic and school districts changing to remote learning, HALO launched HALO Haven, a daytime and evening program for kids to safely engage in their online classes, have a meal, wifi access, access to essential school and hygiene supplies, and receive individual help and resources. We have impacted 24 youth since beginning this program in September 2020.

HALO began supporting a new Outreach Program facilitated through our Uganda HALO Learning Center. The Outreach Program aims to transform and empower youth residing in nearby slums of Uganda through counseling sessions, basic needs and skills training. Since beginning this program in 2020, the program has impacted over 700 youth.

HALO began supporting Simama Transition Home through our HALO Kenya Program and partnership with Simama Project. Simama Transition Home is home to 20 youth who previously did not have a safe place to sleep at night.

Capital Campaign

For over 16 years, HALO has built housing programs all over the world, providing the foundation of a family for children without one. In 2017, we opened the HALO Home in Jefferson City, housing up to 48 children. And now it's Kansas City's turn. There are 6,000+ homeless children on any given night in Kansas City, with only 33 beds available at shelters. HALO can be a solution to providing a safe place.

15 Years of Growth

To celebrate our past 15 years of growth, we chose to reflect on the ways that HALO has changed and expanded since its founding. In 2004, Rebecca Welsh founded HALO after a volunteer trip to Honduras. Rebecca was inspired by Daisy, a little girl living on the streets with big green eyes, no shoes, and chicken lice. Daisy remains a driving force for HALO. Later, a small class of young kids came to a stark realization: "If there are homeless kids who need our help, we should do whatever we can to help them." Their first fundraiser, a Board Break-a-thon, brought in $5,000. Their second raised $40,000. Having seen the efforts and effect a handful of kids could have first hand, HALO's Founder saw the opportunity to create an organization to help one more child spend one less day alone. Continue reading to see the ways that HALO has grown to fulfill its mission.

COVID-19

We are determined to provide our services and have been hard at work to be a resource for every child that is dependent upon HALO. In addition, we are using this time to continue to strengthen our programs and operations systems, so when this is over, we'll be even stronger, as we anticipate our services being in more need than ever.

It's been incredibly heartening to see people coming together virtually all over the world to support each other, support local businesses and restaurants, and to share and even innovate new resources. We truly are all in this together and can make a difference, big or small.

At HALO, we have to stay the course. Right now, the cause that's at the heart of everything we do – providing housing, healing and education – is even more critical. HALO is the foundation of a family for homeless and at-risk children. We need to continue to provide support for these children, especially after we get through COVID-19.

For over 15 years, our work of serving children in the greatest need has never been easy. Our team is made to conquer tough challenges, and we'll get through this together. Thank you for your continued support of HALO's mission. We are grateful for your confidence in us and the important work we do every day.
